Corrections, Retractions, and Scientific Misconduct

Articles found to be infringing this Agreement may be subject to withdrawal from publication and/or be subject to corrective action. The publisher reserves the right to take action including, but not limited to: publishing an erratum or corrigendum (correction); retracting the article; taking up the matter with the head of department or dean of the author's institution and/or relevant academic bodies or societies; or taking appropriate legal action. If the decision is made to not publish the article after accepting it for publication, then all rights transferred to the publisher shall revert to the authors, and this Agreement shall be cancelled.

Electronic Signatures

This transaction may be conducted by electronic means, and the parties authorize that their electronic signatures act as their legal signatures of this Agreement. This Agreement will be considered signed by a party when their electronic signature and date are added below. Such signature shall be treated in all respects as having the same effect as an original handwritten signature.

NOTE: If authors are unable to sign this form electronically, they may sign a hard copy and email it back to the editorial office (editor@innovationsjournals.com).

General Provisions

This Agreement shall be deemed to be a contract made in the United States and shall be construed and applied in all respects in accordance with US law, and the parties submit and agree to the jurisdiction of the US courts.

Any and all disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be solely and finally settled by binding arbitration, which shall be conducted at offices of the American Arbitration

Exclusive License Agreement

Association (“AAA”), by a single arbitrator appointed by the AAA. The governing law will be based on the state in which the arbitration is held (i.e., Kansas if initiated by Allen Press; Ohio if initiated by the Innovative Healthcare Institute).

No amendment or modification of any provision of this Agreement shall be valid or binding unless made in writing and signed by all parties.

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, and representations. The invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect the other provisions, and this Agreement shall be construed in all respects as if any invalid or unenforceable provision were omitted.
